

Sedona Annual Event Calendar

Recurring and confirmed 2026 events. Exact dates shift year to year — verify before you plan a trip around one.

| Month               | Event                                      | Notes                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------|--------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| February            | Sedona International Film Festival  | Feb 21 – Mar 1, 2026. Nine-day festival, one of the country's best-known small film fests; runs year-round programming at the Mary D. Fisher Theatre. |
| March               | Sedona Marathon &amp; Half Marathon | Scenic race courses through the red rocks and town streets.                                                                                           |
| April – May         | Celebration of Spring               | Family event — carnival rides, petting zoo, egg hunt hosted by the City of Sedona.                                                                    |
| May                 | Sedona VegFest                      | Plant-based food and lifestyle festival.                                                                                                              |
| May                 | Red Dirt Fest                       | Music and outdoor festival at Posse Grounds Park.                                                                                                     |
| May & Sept          | Concerts in the Park (Fridays)      | Free two-hour concerts hosted by the City of Sedona Parks & Recreation Dept.                                                                          |
| July                | Independence Day Weekend Events     | Fireworks and BBQ dinners around town, including at Enchantment Resort.                                                                               |
| September           | Restaurant Week Sedona              | Sept 18–27, 2026. Prix-fixe menus across many of the area's top restaurants.                                                                          |
| September – October | Sedona Yoga Festival                | Oct 9–11, 2026. Yoga, wellness workshops, and community events.                                                                                       |
| October             | Sedona Arts Festival                | Oct 10–11, 2026 (33rd annual). Over 100 juried artists, live music, and food at this signature fine-arts festival.                                    |
| October             | Plein Air Festival                  | Oct 16–24, 2026, hosted by the Sedona Arts Center — watch master artists paint on location.                                                           |
| October             | Fest of Fall                        | Oct 17, 2026. Food, drinks, music, and games at Posse Grounds Park.                                                                                   |
| October             | Sedona Mountain Bike Festival       | Nov 6, 2026 (season closer). One of the country's premier mountain-biking festivals, with vendors and group rides for all levels.                     |
| October             | Halloween in Uptown                 | Oct 31, 2026, 5–8 PM. Safe trick-or-treating and costumes in Uptown Sedona.                                                                           |
| November            | Cocodona 250                        | A 250-mile point-to-point ultramarathon through Sedona and surrounding trail towns (dates vary by year).                                              |
| December            | Sedona Winter Events                | Holiday shopping markets and community gatherings; check the city calendar for confirmed dates.                                                       |

Also check month-to-month: Visit Sedona's events calendar and the Sedona Chamber of Commerce calendar list smaller weekly happenings — art walks, retreats, live music, and pop-up markets — that aren't fixed annual dates.